taken out that Twombly might bat for him and Virgil Cheeves faced the Giant batters in the ninth.

Jess Barnes bobbed up in great form and turned the Cubs back with four scattered hits, two of which were made by Ray Grimes. The Giants gave him left-edged support and made many fine plays.

Burns had been retired when the Giants cut loose with their nine-run drive in the first inning. Vaughan doubled Bancroft's tap and Frisch put Bancroft on third with a single to right.

Ofurrell tried to catch Bancroft off third with a peg to Kelleher while Young was at bat and Kelleher thought he had succeeded, but Empire Emslie didn't think so and a five-minute argument ensued.

Klem Avoids Argument

The Cubs tried to drag Bill Klem into the debate, but Bill was wary and remained on the outside looking in. Finally the game got under way again and Young singled through the box, scoring Bancroft. Kelly doubled against the right field wall, sending Frisch over the plate and Yeung to third base. King, who Yeung had hit out with a single to center, Patterson sent King to third with a single to right.

Frank Kramer and Orlando Piani lost a one-mile team match race to Arthur and Willie Spencer at the Newark Velodrome yesterday afternoon. The Spencer boys won the first heat, Kramer and Piani took the second, while the third and deciding one went to the Spencer brothers.

Kramer was caught napping in the first heat and was beaten out by Arthur Spencer. Kramer had outraced Willie Spencer for a half lap and was stalling a bit on the last lap waiting Barrett scored both on the second and third. Burns and Burns with a single to center and proceeded to steal second, whence he scored on Frisch's second hit of the inning, a single to center. The fuel-lamp was checked when Young rolled to Hollocher, forced Frisch by stepping on second base.

Cubs Score One Run

Kramer rode around both Arthur and Willie Spencer in winning the second heat. Arthur stole away three laps from home and tried to win, but he could not get the distance and lost when Kramer went around him on the last lap, right back of Willie. Kramer put up a hard battle around the last turn and just nipped Willie at the tape on the home stretch. Arthur Spencer got away second. Knevel and Piani in the third heat, which was

A double to left by Grimes. Barber's infield out and a single to left by Keller were the ingredients of a run scored by the Cubs in the second inning.

Barnes bled with one out in the fifth, but was left stranded when Burns was called out on strikes and Benefort lined to Barber. In the sixth inning, the Cubs scored again.

Kramer rode around both Arthur and Willie Spencer in winning the second heat. Arthur stole away three laps from home and tried to win, but he could not get the distance and when Kramer went around him on the last lap, right back of Willie. Kramer put up a hard battle around the last turn and just nipped Willie at the line. In the home stretch, Arthur and Spencer got between Kramer and Piani in the third heat, which was against the rules, and on the last lap he was pocketed when Willie raced around him. Kramer chased hard and managed to pass Arthur, but could not beat Willie.

Oscar Egg, the Swiss rider, not in concord as the result of a vaccination on his left arm, which he received from a horse he had scratched a couple of weeks ago, was lapped after the first heat.

Haines With Yankees

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., June 19.—The reporting of Hinkie Haines, Penn State star outfielder, to the New York Yankees makes the third Blue and White athlete to go into fast company in the last several years. Cliff Heathcote, of the St. Louis Nationals, was a student at a Penn State when he signed with the Cards and he made good in rapid fashion. Gene Gramley, a pitcher, went South with the Yankees this spring, but was farmed out.
